Treasurer's Report

The current PFA Financial Update is attached.

Brigitte highlighted the amounts raised during the following events;

Macbeth £250

Able and Cole £500+

Cakeshow ticket auction £35

Rotary Quiz Night - £50

Chocolate Bingo £475

The PFA has recently contributed £245 for new sports kit and £2701 for 8 new IPADS.

Currently the PFA has £1500.00 in available funds.

Request for Funding

Class 1 - Fossil Trip

A PFA donation of £160 was agreed towards the cost of the coach. The remaining cost will be met by Class 1 parents.

Forthcoming Events

Ladies Pamper Night – Ticket sales are slow. A reminder email will be sent to parents to encourage more sales.

Auction of Promises – This will be launched on 2nd June. Any ideas for companies that could be approached would be gratefully received.

Craft Session – Beck asked those present for their thoughts on a payable craft session for children to come along on a Saturday morning (possibly June 14th to make something for Father's Day). All agreed that it sounded like a good idea and it was suggested that a Fairtrade Café might run alongside? Beck will talk to Mrs Jacques and Mrs Morris.

Summer Fayre – This will be held on 5th July 11am-2pm. Details to be discussed at the next meeting.

Recycling Collection

Jane Hirst has very kindly offered to organise this. There will be a collection week commencing 7th July by 'Phil the Bag'. More details will follow

AOB

Nicola Rose will be stepping down from her PFA Secretarial role at the end of July. If anyone is interested in taking over from Nicola, please speak to Beck.

Date for next meeting – Wednesday 21st May 2014, 3.40pm at school.

Meeting finished at 4.30 pm
