

Minutes from the Cockwood PFA meeting

Wednesday 9th November 2016, 9 a.m.

Present: Jodie Butler (Co-chair), Emma Butler (Co-chair), Chris Ham, Claire Lowton, Lyndsey Jolly, Rachel Bright, Zoe Clifton, Beck Tallamy, Jane Hirst, Charlotte Wilkin and Nicole Brooks

1. Apologies: Becky Lawrence, Vicky Rochelle and Suzy Squires

2. Halloween Disco Update

The disco made £289 profit. The pumpkin game proved particularly popular and will be used again, possibly in other formats.

3. Christmas Fayre

Chris Ham has kindly prepared the poster.

The PFA are hoping to have outside stalls this year. Several tables have already been reserved, including Forest Fungi, and some return sellers have booked again from last year. Suggested fee is £10 per table and a raffle prize donation. Half tables will also be available. Charlotte Wilkin to post Facebook message re: booking stalls.

Proposed PFA stalls: Christmas transfers (to be run by Year 6?), cakes, pick-a-bottle, hook-a-duck, pick-a-lolly, bouncy castle.

PFA to contact David Snape re: mulled wine stall / Tanya Tothill re: Christmas puddings stall.

Hot drinks stall to be confirmed.

Jodie Butler to speak to Holly Hilliard / Laura Buttrees about a choir performance.

The governors have kindly agreed to oversee the grotto arrangements.

Raffle tickets to be distributed next week. Various high-value prizes have already been sourced.

4. Polar Express Night

The village hall is now booked for Wednesday 14th December, 5.30 onwards. Children to come in pyjamas with a pillow / cushion and watch the film!

Beck Tallamy is sourcing the bells. Emma Butler to speak to Sally re: cookies. Hot chocolate will also be provided. Cofton Country has kindly donated takeaway cups for this event.
